

FINAL MATCH IN DOUBLES TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO BE PLAYED SATURDAY

BIG CROWD EXPECTED OUT TO SEE THE CONTEST BETWEEN SHAW AND WARWICK, AND KIRKPATRICK AND STAPLES—BOTH WINNERS IN FORMER TOURNAMENTS—WORKING TOWARD SINGLES FINALS, WHICH MAY BE PLAYED NEXT SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20.

Any Narberthite who wants to see a first class tennis match had better come to the courts of the Narberth Tennis Association, at Elmwood and Essex avenues, this Saturday afternoon, September 13, at 2 o'clock, and witness the doubles finals in the annual tournament. The match will be played between Messrs. Shaw and Warwick and Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Staples. These two teams together have eliminated the fifteen other teams that started in the tournament, and as each has had a good deal of tournament experience, a No. 1 tennis may be expected from start to finish. Moreover, both teams are winners of former tournaments.

Last Saturday, Shaw and Warwick won their way to the semi-finals against Newell and Philler in one of the most exciting matches seen on the courts in a long time. In the fourth set, when Shaw and Warwick led by a set score of 2-1, and were within a few points of the what might have been their third set and the match, Newell and Philler redoubled their efforts and by the hardest kind of uphill playing won by a score of 9-7. This tied the set score 2-2, and every point in the fifth set was contested by the sharpest kind of playing right up to the end.

Not so much progress has been made in the singles matches, but it is hoped that during the two coming weeks the playing will have progressed far enough to schedule the final match for Saturday afternoon, September 20. Practically all the best players are still in the running, and no one can safely predict who will win their way to the semi-finals and finals.

The consolation matches are also getting under way and ought to reach the finals in a couple of weeks. The summary of the matches played follows:—

Men's Singles.

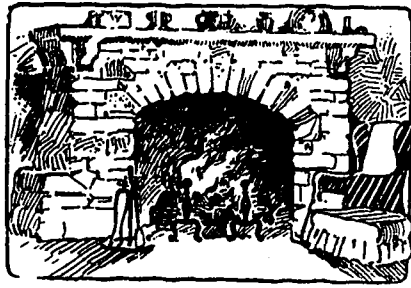

First Round — Whitney defeated Fenno, 6-4, 7-5; Newell defeated Hartley, 6-1, 6-1; W. R. D. Hall defeated Donnelly, 6-4, 6-0; Philler defeated Thomas, 8-6, 6-3; Simpson defeated Bailey, 6-4, 6-1; Kirkpatrick defeated Seaton, 6-1, 6-1; Warner defeated Grace, 6-3, 6-1; Shaw defeated Redifer, Jr., 6-1, 6-0; Pattison defeated Kruse, 6-3, 2-6, 6-0; Warwick defeated Tompkins, 6-0, 6-1; Town defeated Burkhardt, 6-3, 6-0; Williams defeated Redifer, Sr., 6-0, 6-0; Cowin defeated Du Bree, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1; Staples defeated Muschamp, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4; McKell defeated W. Harris, 6-3, 3-6, 6-0; Van Auker defeated McKell, 6-4, 4-6, 6-0.

Second Round — Newell defeated Whitney, 7-5, 6-0; Philler defeated W. R. D. Hall, 7-5, 6-3; Kirkpatrick defeated Simpson, 6-3, 6-4; Warwick defeated Pattison, 6-4, 6-2; Town defeated Williams, 6-4, 6-1; Cowin defeated Staples, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2; Van Auker defeated McKell, 6-4, 4-6, 6-0.

Third Round — Warwick defeated Town, 6-4, 6-3.

THE FIRESIDE

Vacation days are over.

Earl Dickie is home from France.

Andrew Cooke is visiting Miss Ethel Semel, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Simpson are at Silver Bay, Lake George.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stephenson are sojourning in Avalon, N. J.

Miss Maizie Simpson and Miss Sadie Simpson have returned from Ocean City.

Mrs. John Du Bree and daughter Mandy are at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Joyce are spending a few weeks at Chelsea.

Miss Frieda Schubel has severed her relations with the schools to pursue her music work in New York.

Are you interested in crap? If so, you should have been in the Arcade last Sunday afternoon about 5.15.

Ardmore branch of the Y. M. C. A. plans to open a "lodging exchange" to assist visitors to the Main Line town.

Mr. Walton M. Wentz and family have returned home from a visit to Spring Grove, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Peebles are spending their vacation at Thousand Islands.

Miss Edith Stadelman, of St. Augustine, Florida, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dickie.

Mrs. T. Noel Butler, accompanied by her children, is spending the month of August at Ocean City.

Second Lieutenant Earl Dickie has returned from France, after sixteen months' service overseas.

Mrs. G. Howard Reese and daughter Elma, of 206 Woodbine avenue, are spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

The boys at the new Bryn Mawr school did considerable police work in cleaning up the grounds on the opening day.

The streets of our Borough are being put in excellent condition. We have a good Street Commissioner, and why not tell him so.

Judge and Mrs. N. M. Taylor, of Indianapolis, Ind., are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Taylor.

A demonstration supper will be held in the Y. M. C. A. during the latter part of September, under the direction of the Women's Auxiliary.

Bryn Mawr's business men abandoned the local town Wednesday and went on their first annual outing, which was held at the Plymouth Country Club, near Norristown.

Major A. H. Allen, of Washington, D. C., recently returned from overseas, was a visitor to our town last week. Major Allen is a brother of Mrs. Benjamin T. White, of Dudley avenue.

PRAISE FOR MAIN LINE.

About the Prettiest Section in the U. S.
Aviator Declares.

Seen from an airplane, the Main Line section is about the prettiest in the United States. This is the opinion of an expert.

Captain Joe Dawson, U. S. A., attached to the aviation supply depot near Harrisburg, paid an airplane visit to his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Burke Baker, County Line road, Bryn Mawr, making the trip in about an hour Saturday afternoon and landing on the Bryn Mawr Polo Club playing field.

"I have traveled over a good bit of country in these United States," Captain Dawson said yesterday, "but I have never seen anything so beautiful as this Main Line district. The places looked so nice that I wanted to land at all of them."

OVERSEAS HERO VICTIM OF RECKLESS AUTO DRIVER

The fourth automobile accident in two weeks at Bryn Mawr avenue and Old Lancaster Road, Bryn Mawr, sent Jacob Bosch, 798 Railroad avenue, Bryn Mawr, to the Bryn Mawr Hospital with a crushed ankle. Bosch, who recently returned from military service in France, was riding a motorcycle and was struck by a large touring car, whose driver, he said, hurried on. Several similar crashes have occurred at the same corner recently, as Old Lancaster Road is getting a lot of extra traffic since all travel has been diverted from the Lancaster turnpike through parallel roads during repairs.

MOTOR CAR ACCIDENTS.

Lower Merion Police and the Hospitals
Are Kept Busy.

Three serious automobile accidents, occurring within twenty-four hours, kept the Lower Merion police busy all Wednesday. One of the injured, Jacob Friedman, 15 years old, 5113 Columbia avenue, is in the Bryn Mawr Hospital in a serious condition from what may be a fracture of the skull. Another boy, Winford Bibelow, 16 years old, of Ardmore, is in the same hospital, but is recovering from numerous cuts and bruises. Leon Smith, of Haverford, was treated there Wednesday for a cut on the head.

Friedman was struck near the Narberth race track by the automobile of Dr. William S. Wray, of 4424 Wayne avenue, who also has an office at 2007 Chestnut street. He was permitted to go home on his promise to appear if wanted.

Bibelow was hurt when he rode from behind a wagon on his bicycle, on the Lancaster pike at Bryn Mawr, and was struck by a machine driven by H. Winer, of 114 North Carlisle street. Winer also was not arrested.

Smith was thrown from a light touring car in a side-on collision with a much heavier car at Bryn Mawr avenue and the old Lancaster road, Bryn Mawr, in which the small machine was tossed over the sidewalk and the heavier one went some distance up on the lawn of the Bryn Mawr Public School, but was only slightly damaged.

WOMAN A CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL DIRECTOR.

Mrs. Henry J. Gibbons on Republican
Ticket in Lower Merion.

Demotion of Miss Sarah Fite as principal of the Bala School brought school matters to a crisis in Lower Merion township, according to the women of that community, and they have endorsed Mrs. Henry J. Gibbons, of 339 Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, as candidate for school director on the Republican primary ballot.

"We feel," said Mrs. Gibbons, "that we need women on the school board. We have tried several times before to elect a woman, but failed. The demotion of Miss Fite brought matters to a head and many citizens feel that if injustice was done, it might have been averted had there been a woman on the board."

Mrs. Gibbons is corresponding secretary of the Woman's Club of Cynwyd, and has taken an active part in war work and in civic movements.

FORCED TO RAISE PRICE.

Counties Gas & Electric Company Make
Small Increase.

The Counties Gas & Electric Company announces to the public a raise in the price of gas of 10 cents per 1000 cubic feet. The new rates will go into effect on September 15, and will be $1.20 per 1000 cubic feet for the first 10,000 feet and a discount of 10 cents per 1000 feet is given from payment within the discount period.

The company maintained its old rates during the entire war period and when the country was suffering from shortage of coal, with costs still mounting, the company has been compelled to take a raise of 10 cents per 1000 cubic feet, and it is one of the very few public utilities companies that has alone borne the increased costs of manufacture during the war period.

John L. Mather, manager for this district, explained the necessity for this increase to help the company keep its equipment and plants in condition to maintain its usual satisfactory service. They waited patiently for signs of a decrease in the cost of material and oils, but as no drop came they were forced to take steps to increase their revenue.

Even with the increase we are enjoying lower rates than those charged by other suburban companies.

THE ENROLLMENT.

The total Republican enrollment of Montgomery County, as compiled by the County Clerk's office, is 28,735. The Democratic voters enrolled for the primary election total 9,497, while the Socialist ranks number 332. There are 78 prohibitionists and 81 members each in the Washington and Independent ranks.

The enrollment in the four legislative districts follows:

	Rep.	Dem.	Soc.	Pr.	W.	Ind.
1st D.	9983	1969	30	12	16	49
2nd D.	8224	1872	18	6	27	4
3rd D.	7617	1835	51	34	34	25
4th D.	2911	3821	233	26	4	3
Totals	28735	9497	332	78	81	81

Notice to all Property Owners

Write to John H. Rex, County Treasurer, Norristown, Pa., giving you address and ask for county tax bill sending 2-cent stamp for return postage. Or send check for 2 mills per dollar on assessment, including 3-cent stamp for receipt.

After September 15th bills will not be sent, but will be given to delinquent tax collector for collection with 5% penalty added.

Pay your county taxes early.

YEABSLEY'S TEXAS LEAGUER DEFEATS THRILLING DUEL BETWEEN GREVELL AND DURBIN, 1 TO 0.

NARBERTH DIES HARD.

STARTS BRILLIANT RALLY IN NINTH INNING, ONLY TO BE REPULSED.

A nifty Texas Leaguer by Bert Yeabsley, enabling Cruthers to cross the plate, spelled defeat for Narberth in the Main Line League game played on Dobson club diamond here on Saturday, the home club winning 1 to 0.

Fans numbering close to 6000 traveled to Dobson Park to witness the game, which was for the supremacy of the last half of the season. They were rewarded by one of the most sensational twirling duels staged in the semi-professional ranks.

Manager Calhoun placed his faith in "Wild Bill" Grevell for pitcher, while Bill Durbin was slated to oppose him.

Durbin worked just as earnestly as he did when doing his "bit" in Base Hospital 20 overseas. Grevell was forced to exert himself in more strenuous fashion than he possibly did with Connie Mack.

Durbin pitched steady ball and allowed the Dobs but four hits for a total of six bases, a like number being secured by Narberth on five hits off Grevell. Dame Fortune smiled on Grevell to the extent that his teammates brought the one big run over the rub-

Boy Scout News

By a Good Scout.

Well, our Narberth Troop certainly had a good time at Camp Delmont during the week commencing August 9 and ending August 16.

On April 25 we gave a minstrel show to raise the money to defray the expenses of the boys at camp for one week's instruction in Scout work at our training camp.

Our total receipts were $189, out of which expenses were as follows: Costumes, $41; orchestra, $28.55; rent of Elm Hall, $16; printing of tickets, $6.25; music, $1.50; make-up, $1; total, $94.30, leaving a clear profit of $94.70.

We had made arrangements to take 20 of the troop who signified their wishes to go at $5.50 per Scout, making a total of $110, which necessitated drawing on our treasury of $15.30. At the last minute another member of the troop signified his wishes to join us and took the chance of being turned down by paying his own way, and if there was no vacancy he would return at once. The registration was only paid for 20 Scouts from Narberth, and when we arrived we had some difficulty in landing 21, but, as one of the 20 was our little mascot, the Scout master offered to double up with the mascot, so we pulled that off O. K.

The question of transportation stared us in the face, as we wished to go in a body, and as our resources were small and our ambition was to meet all expenses from our treasury, some of our friends came to our assistance by offering to take us up to camp in their private cars, for which we thank them most heartily. They were Messrs. Carl Metzger, George M. Davis, Odean, T.

Editorial

After an absence of three weeks, "Our Town" again greets you.

During the dull month of August, with so many of our townspeople away, it was deemed advisable to publish the paper only where sufficient news and sufficient income warranted getting out the paper from week to week. However, plans are under way at the present moment to underwrite the paper for a period of one year, and the Editor sincerely trusts that all those on whom the committee will call will listen to the excellent plan outlined by the Chairman of the Finance Committee, and do all that can be done to assist us in keeping this little paper before our readers from week to week.

The quality of baseball played by our local team at the Dobson grounds last Saturday was of the best, and there is only honor due every member of the team for the wonderful showing made against the strong Dobson aggregation.

When one considers the fact that our team is made up principally of Narberth boys, and also considering that they have played against a great many professionals in the games during the past season, the second half of the present series proved that Narberth undoubtedly had one of the strongest amateur teams in this section.

The game to be played today, with Strawberry & Clothier, at Sixty-third and Walnut streets, will be watched with interest, and we can only trust that ample support will be given our boys in shaping up their plans for next season.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The Borough seems to be a little slack in performing some of its duties. Collection of ashes this month was omitted, the reason given being pressing work on the roads. But ash collection is more important to many householders than road work, especially when it is due only once a month. Despite the increased use of gas stoves, there are still many coal ranges in use, and ashes accumulate in four weeks. Then, too, some of our people were away at last collecting time.

Speaking of road work, we notice that the cleaning of gutters is not attended to as in Squire McClellan's time. Some sections of our streets have gotten filled with weeds and coarse grass. One does not yet see the sign on street corners leading from the two pikes to Narberth, the need for which was so forcibly set forth last month by Mr. Freeman.

CAMOLEN.

To the Editor of Our Town:

My impression, after my first attendance at a meeting of Council, on Monday, September 8, as a representative of the Narberth Civic Association, is that the Borough is to be congratulated upon the thorough and business-like methods of our municipal authorities in dealing with the questions relating to the Borough and its citizens. The principal matters brought up at the meeting were as follows:

Mr. E. C. Griswold was appointed a member of the Board of Health, vice Mr. Charles V. Noel.

The Finance Committee presented bills aggregating $2,994.36, which were approved for payment.

Officer Hill again reported the parking of several cars at very late hours of the night without lights. Summary action may be taken if owners don't take heed.

Our guardian of the law is also very keen on wrongdoers, especially those who are guilty of that minor offense of "joy-riding" in another man's car without notification to the owner. Mr. Hill had a personal conference with three such parties during the month, but he did not divulge the outcome, outside of the fact that he arrested them.

$19.25 was contributed to the Police Pension Fund for services rendered by the Philadelphia police during the recent race meet at Belmont track.

As before intimated, some property owners will probably regret they did not co-operate with the Committee on Highways and Sewers in connection with the sidewalks and gutters, for which they are responsible.

The Committee on Finance is authority for the statement that as soon as Tax Collector Jones can remit some of the 1919 taxes just that soon can some of our loans be reduced.

Note the improved appearance of the shade trees after the recent pruning. Mr. John Auker is now a member of the Shade Tree Committee.

Some taxpayers at Price and Conway avenues seem to be under the impression that they should have more light in that section. Council was agreeable, so now there will be more light on the subject in that vicinity.

The Committee on Highways and Sewers will have the necessary surveys made and plans prepared, and also obtain estimates for additional sewers to take care of properties now being erected in the Borough.

The Street Commissioner reports that he has at last secured a horse that is a perfect match for the one good one we already have.

Additional rubber boots and coats were authorized to take care of our firemen during inclement weather; also a chain jack for the fire trucks.

C. H. A. CHAIN.

A copy of the following letter was sent to us for publication and we submit it accordingly:

Mr. Charles E. Kreamer,
President of the Board of Health,
Borough of Narberth, Pa.

Dear sir:

Under the authority vested in me, as President of the Council of the Borough of Narberth, by the Act of June 12, 1913, P. L. 471, I have the honor to notify you that I have this day appointed you to serve for another term of five years as a member of the Board of Health, the appointment to date from May 1, 1919.

I have also reappointed Dr. C. T. Paries for the five year term to expire May 1, 1923, his appointment to date from May 1, 1918.

Section 1 of the Act of April 3, 1903, P. L. 138, amending Section 20 of the Act of June 18, 1895, P. L. 203, reads as follows:

"No justice of the peace, member of Council, or other officers, except school directors, constables, or election officers, shall, at the same time, be a member of the Board of Health of such municipality, or hold any office or appointment under the same."

I have therefore removed Charles V. Noel as a member of the Board of Health, effective this date, and have appointed in his stead E. C. Griswold to serve the unexpired portion of the term, the same effective as of this date. Mr. Griswold's term will expire May 1, 1920.

I would advise you that under the provisions of the Act cited above, the continuation in office of A. P. Redifer as Secretary of the Board of Health is illegal and I would suggest to you that he be replaced at once. I have called this to the attention of Mr. Redifer.

The reasons why Messrs. Noel and Redifer are not legally holding their places with the Board of Health are that the former is an officer of the Borough Council and the latter is a member thereof.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) W. R. D. HALL,
President of the Council, Borough of Narberth, Pa.

NARBERTH SCHOOLS.

Several changes in the faculty of the Narberth High School, which opened Tuesday, have been announced by William T. Melchior, principal. Miss Frieda Bausch, of the Department of Modern Languages, goes to Shippensburg Normal School after spending only a year in Narberth. Miss Adeline W. Larzelere has become Mrs. William J. Kelly and will be "at home" at Warrington, Pa., after September 1. She was head of the History Department three years, having previously taught in the grammar school.

The faculty as it now stands consists of Mr. Melchior, principal; Anna

Church Notes.

Mr. Van Ness has returned from his vacation spent at Stony Brook, Long Island, and was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience last Sunday.

The members of the Church session and their wives were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty last Friday evening.

At a recent meeting of the Building Committee plans were formulated for the enlargement of the Church building to meet the needs of the growing Sunday School.

The Women's Bible Class held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. H. A. Banks last Thursday afternoon.

The members of the Westminster Circle were pleasantly entertained last Thursday evening, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Rupp being hostesses.

There will be an important meeting of the Sunday School teachers next Friday evening at the Church.

The sermon tomorrow morning will have special reference to the opening of the school year and should be helpful to all parents, teachers and scholars.

SCOUT NEWS

Lambert and Swartz, who are always ready to assist in the Boy Scout movement.

We had a splendid trip all the way to camp and enjoyed every minute of the 41-mile drive without any mishaps.

On arriving at camp, after the question of the extra Scout was settled, we were assigned to our quarters, which were the first four tents, Nos. 1, 3, 5 and 7, next to headquarters, as we were the first troop to pay for our reservation for that week.

We were then each given a number, as that was the easiest way to handle over 250 boys and keep track of their work.

After that we heard the bugle call for mess, which was a very welcome call, so, after bidding our transporters good-bye, we marched to the mess cabin.

To explain everything as it happened in rotation would necessitate an extra four pages added to "Our Town," so will condense my story as much as possible.

The Scouts spent the day on a regular schedule as follows:—

6.45 A. M.—Reveille with morning dip and setting up exercises.

7 A. M.—Raising of the flag.

7.15 A. M.—Breakfast.

9 A. M.—Sick call.

9.15 A. M.—School, where the Scouts took up nature studies, boating, pacing and tests of all kinds, winning points for which special bars were given to the Scouts reaching from 100 points up.

11 A. M.—Swimming.

12.30 P. M.—Lunch.

2 P. M.—Scout games, consisting of treasure hunts, hikes, baseball, boating, etc.

4 P. M.—Swimming.

6.15 P. M.—Supper.

7.30 P. M.—Drill and lowering of flag.

8.15 P. M.—Camp fire.

9 P. M.—Call to quarters.

9.15 P. M.—All quiet.

9.30 P. M.—Lights out.

You can imagine by going through with the schedule that our time was pretty well taken up and not a minute hung heavy on our hands.

Every day a detail of Scouts had to be drawn for table service (two boys at each table).

Sanitary duty (two Scouts from each table).

Kitchen duty (one Scout from each table).

Table service consisted of two Scouts setting the table and placing and serving the food, and after the meals washing and drying the dishes and mopping the table and floor.

The sanitary duty consisted of about one hour's work picking up papers and clearing the campus of all rubbish.

Kitchen service consisted of peeling, or rather scraping, one bucketful of potatoes.

Every Scout had to do his turn, and I must say they did it willingly, so do not hesitate to ask them to help out at home, but please do not blame the Scout master if they should balk at it.

The entire week passed without an accident or sickness with the exception of a slight bruise received by Scout Donald Faile in a game of defend the day.

One day, to our sorrow, three of our troop were penalized for coming to the dining hall forgetting to brush their teeth. Their punishment was to carry five buckets of sand from the creek to the roadway. Don't think it wise to publish their names, for they might not like it, and I know of several other boys who forgot accidentally on purpose to brush their teeth, but used gum to get away with it.

Little Johnny Godown told us all he could swim, but when he got to the pool he found out that swimming in water over his head was different than swimming in the bath tub. After he had swallowed a few mouthfuls of water he was grabbed by others near by and was satisfied after a good fright to stay in shallow water.

It was also found out later that Scout Peters could not swim, which was the reason of his not going in the water until the middle of the week, and then only by compulsion of his tent mates.

Lester's worry was about the two razors he had brought to camp. Personally I never saw him use them, but he was always talking about taking a shave, and I suppose the reason he brought two razors was in case one would not hold down the fuzz he had another to fall back on. I believe he caught William Stanley sharpening a pencil with one of the razors, which occasioned quite an uproar for a minute.

Alexander Burt was allowed to trail along with a Scout master one day who was very fond of fishing, and, after watching the Scout master fish for several hours, Alex sitting in the stern of the boat and not allowed to talk or move, what he doesn't know about fishing now isn't worth knowing.

Dick Odeorn was as quiet at camp as he is at home, but he always seems to get his fun out of everything.

Gordon Rudolph didn't miss much that was going on. His pleasure was boating and swimming, and he certainly knows how to swim. His main occupation was chewing gum, for I never saw him without it.

Christopher Herron was a game sport, this being his first camp. His worry was over a box of candy that his father had sent him. Imagine a bunch of Scouts in one tent and Christopher being the only possessor of a box of candy. It took some scheming to make that box last a week, believe me, but he did it.

Howard Vallette was always missing, and I only had to go over to where the boats were and I would always be sure to find him.

Joe Fulton seemed to enjoy himself the most when sparring with someone in front of his tent.

William Stanley was very studious during the entire week, taking up nature study during the drill, which he was not very fond of. You could always find William in the woods listening to the bark of the trees while the other Scouts were drilling up and down the campus.

Gerald Sperry, the troop's principal outdoor comedian, had me going one night by calling papa from his tent after all Scouts were in bed. Thinking it was my son, Robert, I left the other Scout masters to look after my boy, thinking perhaps he was sick, when, low and behold, there was a snicker came from all the tents, and I found it was our comedian trying to pull off a joke at my expense.

Thomas McAuliffe was an old veteran at this camp business, this being his second year at camp, and was the instigator of all the camp jokes, such as sending the rookies to the mess tent after a tent wrench, but, never mind, old boy, I forgave you when you and Donald Faile and Gerald Sperry came back from sending Chris Herron and Harold Baum home from Green Lane and presenting me with two tavern cigars.

THE LOTTERY

By a Rising Young Narberth Authoress

"The average life of an aviator is but thirty days," read Mary Carter, and with the reading of these words was born to her the germ of an idea.

"Mary, what's the matter?" said the plaintive voice of the sick boy at her side.

"Oh, forgive me, Dal! I—I was dreaming, I guess." And she went on reading the news to her brother. And as she read the idea for which she had been groping came to her.

She forgot Dal; forgot that she was reading aloud; forgot everything, excepting her great idea, and, jumping up, she cried:

"I know what I'll do; I'll go to him and I'll ask him to—"

"Mary, are you crazy?" exclaimed Dal Carter. "What is the matter with you?"

For a moment the girl stared helplessly at her brother; then she laughed.

"Yes, I guess I am crazy, Dal."

That evening, after the dishes were done and the little boy next door had been bribed to stay with Dal, Mary left her own house and started to walk toward the other end of the town.

She was glad the walk was a long one. It would give her time to prepare her strange speech and courage to deliver it.

But even the longest walk must end, and Mary at last found herself in a long, low-ceilinged room, lighted only by a shaded lamp and the warm glow of an open fire.

She had time to give only one nervous gulp before the man whom she had come to see stood before her.

"Well, what can I do for you?" he demanded abruptly. Mary stood up and faced him squarely.

"You can marry me," she said.

"Well, of all the confounded ner—What is this, blackmail?" snapped Arnold Day.

Then suddenly, with no apparent reason, all of the girl's splendid courage seemed to leave her. For one instant she looked about for some way of escape; seeing none, she burst into tears and sank limply into the nearest chair.

Arnold Day stared at the weeping girl before him.

Women had pursued him, to be sure; women had hinted at marriage; but never before in all of his twenty-eight years had a woman dropped from the sky and commanded him to marry her.

And then, seeing what a truly pathetic little figure she was, his heart smote him for his abruptness and his voice took on a more gentle tone.

"Tell me, child, what is it?" he asked. "I know you must have some real trouble. You don't look like the blackmailing sort. Just forget those words of mine and tell me what it's all about. Be frank about it and I'll see what I can do for you."

"Oh, dear!" sobbed Mary, woman-like, "why are you so nice. Please be—disa—greeable. If you're nice, I can—nev—er tell you."

The man looked overcom. He was utterly at sea.

He snapped at her; she burst into tears.

He consoled her; she begged him to be disagreeable.

He had always known that women were queer things; but this little waiting thing huddled in the chair beat 'em all.

So, knowing nothing better to do, Arnold Day remained silent until the weeping had subsided and Mary raised her head and smiled up at him through her tears.

"I know—I'm—a fool," she half gasped, half laughed, dashing the tears from her wet cheeks. "Anyhow, you've seen me at my worst."

Arnold smiled at her kindly. "Poor kiddie—here, take off your hat and get comfortable; then let's get it out."

So Mary removed her hat and began an explanation of her astounding proposal.

"I'll be brief, and if I'm nervous,—please forgive me.

"My name is Mary Carter.

"One year ago my father died, leaving me and my crippled brother alone in the world.

"A few months later our securities failed. And now we have nothing. I can't go out to work, Dal needs me. I can't afford to have anyone nurse him. I write; but my stories are not accepted.

"Mr. Day, I believe you are to be an aviator?"

The man nodded silently.

"Today I read that the average life of an aviator is thirty days.

"You are supposed to be a confirmed woman-hater.

"You have no near relatives.

"In all probability you will not live long. Will you marry me to give me your salary and, after your death, a widow's pension?"

"It sounds cruel—heartless—anything you want to call it; but it's life," she ended simply.

Arnold had listened to her words with his head bent so as to save her all embarrassment; but now, as she finished, he looked up straight into her eyes.

"I believe you," he said quietly, "and I admire you. You are a plucky girl."

He arose and stood before her. "I'm going out to think this thing over. When I return you shall have my answer. Make yourself comfortable. Pick out a book and here's a box of candy for you," he smiled. "I believe even a 'plucky' girl likes chocolates."

Mary looked at him, so near to both tears and laughter that she could scarcely speak.

"Thanks," she managed to stammer.

The outer door banged. It was Arnold Day returning.

For Mary, the past hour had been an eternity. At last it was over and she would know.

The man came slowly in.

"Well, Mary Carter." He paused, then went on, "I'm going to marry you."

The girl's taut nerves relaxed. "Thank God!" she breathed fervently.

"Wait, you have not heard all. I am asking something in return. It is not much and I think you will comply with my wishes.

Cub's Weekly Letter

To the Editor of Our Town:

While the President, several Governors and other officials are trying to solve this H. C. of L. thing, a Narberth man has decided that he can settle the question, at least as far as he and his family are concerned. There are three things a man must have to live, these being a home, food and clothing. Previous to July 1 I would have found it necessary to add a fourth item to the list, but that's water (or rather it is not water) over the dam. All of these cost money nowadays, which statement, however, is not exactly what you might call new. Now, I'll tell you what this man did.

Being a builder, of course, it was no trick to find the home; a home doesn't cost a builder anything you know. But while he was about it the hero of this tale got a great big place, big enough for himself, wife, children, children's husbands or wives, as the case might be, and their children. Some little colony, believe me.

Now to feed and clothe them. Mr. Forehanded hies himself to the city in his new automobile (1906) and buys 23 sheep. Of course, he cannot carry 23 sheep in one auto and in order to transport the whole flock it was necessary to make several trips and bring these sheep to the new home in installments of three or four. He sneaked them in while the family wasn't looking, because no doubt he felt rather sheepish over it. Of course, he burned some gas and wore out a few tires, but expense is nothing to this fellow—he doesn't care any more for a dollar than etc., etc. I might add that the home was surrounded by several acres of grass that hadn't been mowed in the memory of our oldest inhabitant. Well, that grass is going to feed the sheep, but they cannot eat it all in ten years. No doubt the sheep will multiply and in time roast mutton will be on the colony's menu more often than epicures like you or I would prefer. But, nevertheless, the food question is settled as far as these happy people are concerned. Perhaps I don't need to tell you that the clothing question is also settled by the sheep. They will furnish the wool, and that's all there is to it. So you see there are enough of the necessities of life to keep the wolf from the door, although it would be disconcerting should it be discovered that one of the sheep is actually a wolf in sheep's clothing.

In the meantime, the residents of Rockland and Narberth avenues adjoining the sheep nursery find it unnecessary to visit the Zoo—all they need do is to sit on their porches and enjoy free of charge the same odoriferous atmosphere as prevails at Thirty-third and Girard avenue.

Have you seen any of Ed. Haw's $100 war certificates? They're a mighty good investment, inasmuch as they're absolutely safe, being guaranteed by Uncle Sam and paying a fair rate of interest.

During September the price is $84. On January 1, 1924, their value will be $100. In the meantime they are redeemable at any post office for the purchase price, plus interest—just like the $5 stamps, you know.

Surely, they are better than savings bank accounts.

"Politics make strange bed fellows," Fletcher. Who's your dark complexioned friend that stuck to you so closely at the ball game?

Have you noticed the tree trimming operation on Essex avenue? It's hard to believe that our Shade Tree Commission has actually come to life and I am inclined to think that the Electric Light Company did the work. But to whom ever did it, the thanks of the community are due. It is to be hoped the job won't stop—let 'em go as far as they like.

There's one man who never goes out of his front door because the tree branches there hang very low and would interfere with his progress. He makes a short cut to the station through the kitchen door, and thus avoids all trouble. He hasn't extended the privilege, however, to other residents of the block. Thrifty soul, that fellow. He's waiting for a good wind storm to trim his trees for him, and his neighbors are beginning to feel the same way about it, now that there seems to be no chance of his giving up even an hour of tennis, in order to trim his trees.

It's so nice to get away from the noise and bustle of the city to enjoy the quiet of the suburbs. Yeh—that's one of the things you read about. As an actuality, let me describe last Sunday as it was observed down in our alley.

The quiet of a serene Sabbath Day was first broken by the yelping of a whole bunch of sooner dogs now esconced on the estate of our efficient Street Commissioner. These dogs are not late sleepers, nor is their boss. The latter doesn't spend much time in bed—must have something on his conscience. The little mutts evidently find it necessary to eat early and often, because, as I understand it, they only yelp when they are hungry. They don't bark—they yelp, and at all hours. The service at their restaurant must be rather slow, judging by the somewhat extended character of their unmusical outgivings. They don't hold these performances on Sundays exclusively. They're hourly the week long. Just as soon as the Burgess has time to visit Narberth, I propose to file a complaint.

Well, the dogs subsided and the congregation in a nearby Church had just about been seated, when the strong-armed bell ringer started in on his favorite pastime of pulling the rope. That's just a habit, I suppose, because there seems to be no rhyme or reason for this bell ringing stuff. It doesn't bring in any recruits—none that you can see, anyway, and the din seems all in vain. It seems to me that they ring the bell at the wrong time. If they'd wait until the service was over the bell would at least serve as an excuse for awakening anyone that might be asleep.

Well, after the ringing stopped, a girl in the neighborhood thought she'd add her little contribution and thereupon she began to entertain the neighborhood with some of the latest ragtime specialties, and on a piano which she admits has been in the family for six years and has never been tuned.

After awhile she tired and then someone turned on a phonograph full fore—big needle, windows wide open, etc.—but a kindly disposed double-header freight came along after awhile, and during its passing the phonograph became discouraged and gave up. That ended it, so I thought. But, as the real writers say, I was doomed to disappointment. An unearthly kind of a commotion assailed my tortured ears, something I couldn't account for until I looked out of the window and, horrors! there was Bill Cumber all dolled up in a white hat and shirt, trousers, socks and shoes of the same complexion. I recognized the mustache and the voice, but didn't wait for any more. Off I went to the city to seek solace in the quiet of the subway.

The Women's Auxiliary Preparations for a Busy Season

The Women's Auxiliary is delighted to acknowledge receipt of a donation of 75 yards of percales and ginghams, which will be utilized at once in the preparation of attractive aprons and other useful articles, and placed on sale in the Mother Goose carnival to be held in the Y. M. C. A. in November.

Mrs. J. Taylor Darlington has accepted chairmanship of this department of the carnival and has selected as her assistants, Mrs. W. D. Smedley, Mrs. J. W. Tisch, Mrs. Morley, Mrs. Mann, Mrs. Nellie Denman, Mrs. Eugene Hurth, Mrs. S. Lowry, Miss Linda Morrow, Mrs. W. J. Peebles, Mrs. William Lamb and Mrs. Shinn.

Mrs. Darlington would like to meet these ladies in the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday, September 2, as soon after lunch as possible. Please bring your scissors and apron patterns with you. It is hoped to have all materials cut during that afternoon and distributed among the Auxiliary members for making.

For Council Only

Having resided in Narberth for several years and wondered as to how this quiet little place was governed, one day I was asked by a neighbor to join what is known as the Civic Association. In behalf of this association and the weekly paper published under its auspices I had the pleasure to receive an invitation to report on a Council meeting held in the Borough Hall one evening a couple of weeks ago. It seemed almost a mystery for years as to how the material side of this suburban town was cared for, as I never heard it mentioned. Usually in places where we had taken up our abode years past the guiding elders of any little hamlet appeared very important. After four years' acquaintance with a few citizens whom I had learned to esteem very highly, the occasion arose to behold the ardent labor of the Borough Council of Narberth. From time to time it had been a question in my mind as to whether a vital interest was being manifested in things material concerning this beautiful little spot which in our younger days we knew by the name of Elm Station.

Certainly, many of us willingly admit the great difficulty encountered, where social kindness and church adherence may have the influence to benumb the enforcement of laws written and customs unwritten, and yet urgent as to the keeping, because so much depends upon the attitude of the individual in the discharge of daily ethics.

Being a believer in constraining influence rather than restraint, and in voluntary sacrifice rather than shirking the common duties falling upon all men alike in their different vocations, it was with great satisfaction I witnessed the Borough Council at work. Being men who by fair judgment had all passed the quarter century mark I know from experience that even a couple evenings each month may be reluctantly given to philanthropic work where a person is certain of some appreciation, not to say anything about the time necessary to devote, when some suburban Sylvanopolis is to be lifted from the embryotic state to be put on the map just in straight business and respectable fashion.

Hail the men who guide the material side of the Borough. If the Borough is worthy of note because of its fortunate location, it will only be of greater value as a place of residence by being taken care of in unselfish endeavor to bring about the greatest comfort to its inhabitants as a whole. To begin with, the Burgess, Mr. Downes, reported on the Shade Tree Commission; Mr. Hall, the president, having been authorized by Council at their last meeting to act in the matter of paving Price avenue, reported on same; Dr. Faries and Mr. E. Cramer were appointed members of Board of Health in accordance with the Borough Code; monthly report by the Treasurer, Mr. E. P. Dold; Mr. Wentz, Chairman of Committee of Highways and Sewers, reported on same and presented sealed bids from Messrs. Moore and Cordetti for construction of curbs, gutters and sidewalks on the east side of Haverford avenue; Mr. Redifer, Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported. Mr. Downes reported having made arrangements for additional help during the grand circuit races, and also for the inspection of auto licenses. Several ordinances were read and passed second reading, one ordinance being, 'It is unlawful to erect permanent awnings over or upon the sidewalks of the Borough.' The ordinance for amending the ordinance for the election of Building Inspector was approved.

The mystery as to the government of the Borough of Narberth disappeared from my puzzled mind, and on the horizon arose in definite lines. The Narberth Borough Council was motioned to adjourn.

HORSE RESCUED FROM STREAM.

William Mulvaney, of Ardmore, an agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was recently aroused in the middle of the night to assist in rescuing a horse belonging to William Shippen that had wandered down the Ardmore trolley line near County Line road, and had fallen from a small bridge into the stream. The animal was cut and bruised by the fall, but was otherwise uninjured.

Y. M. C. A. Mite Boxes

On October 1, 1918, there were distributed among the members and friends of the Y. M. C. A. one hundred mite boxes, the understanding being that the recipient of each box was to place therein one penny per day during the ensuing year. These boxes will be recalled some evening during the first week of October, at which time the Women's Auxiliary will be delighted to welcome a large gathering for a social evening. If you have forgotten your pennies during the summer months, please hunt up your boxes and get them up to date, remembering that the person having the largest amount in his or her box will receive a prize from the Auxiliary.

"The Object of this Association shall be to improve and beautify the Borough and vicinity; to assist and co-operate with the authorities in enforcing laws and ordinances relating thereto; to promote any project having for its purpose the betterment of the community as a whole; to provide a means of acquiring and disseminating information on any subject of general interest; and to foster and maintain a fraternal spirit among the people of our community." Dues for Voting Membership for one year, $1.00. Every resident of Narberth and vicinity eligible.

Civic Association Directors Meet

A committee meeting of the directors of the Narberth Civic Association was held last Thursday evening at the residence of the President, Joseph H. Nash, on Merion avenue.

At this meeting the future of this paper was discussed and plans made for the immediate raising of sufficient funds to carry the paper for the coming volume, and the people of Narberth will be asked to assist in this new plan, as every endeavor is being made to keep "Our Town" from being discontinued.

Other matters pertaining to the Civic Association were discussed and much activity is planned for the coming few months.

The Century Club of Norwood (Pa.) was entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. Stuart Freeman, of 226 Narberth avenue, aided by her sister-in-law, Mrs. John B. Otto, Jr., who with her young son is spending a few weeks in Narberth. Among those attending the luncheon and card party were Mrs. A. S. Bond, Mrs. A. A. Crooks, Mrs. J. L. Farrell, Mrs. C. M. Niesser, Mrs. C. L. Shaw, Mrs. H. Sheets, Mrs. J. H. Colwell, Mrs. J. H. Jordan, Mrs. S. B. Boone, Mrs. C. J. Marshall, Mrs. H. L. Knapp, Miss M. N. Allen, Mrs. E. W. Morrison, Mrs. W. C. Kelley, Mrs. J. Dever, Mrs. S. G. Galbraith, Mrs. S. G. Kneeder, Mrs. C. H. Pierson, Mrs. W. J. Guesefeldt, Mrs. J. T. Ferley, Mrs. H. Hibbitt, Mrs. T. B. Doud and Mrs. W. H. Applegate.

HAVERFORD and ESSEX

Everybody has taken notice of the decided change in the appearance of the Walton property, Essex and Haverford avenues, now occupied by the Armstrong Automobile Laundry & Service Company.

The two punch bowls taken from the Y. M. C. A. without permission some time ago have not as yet been returned. Someone is responsible for this and is causing a great deal of inconvenience to the various organizations serving refreshments at their meetings.

A Mother Goose Carnival will be held in the Y. M. C. A. in November. This carnival will be directed by the Women's Auxiliary, who hope to make it even more attractive and successful than Lovey Mary's Garden of two years ago.

The Women's Auxiliary will be glad to relieve all those who are preparing to move in the near future of any discarded clothing, furniture, pictures, china, etc., if you will phone Narberth 1614-W. These articles will be stored in the Y. M. C. A. for rummage sale to be held later on.

"A Dangerous Affair," with Herbert Rawlinson and an all-star cast, including Florence Billings and Stuart Holmes, is an extraordinary film attraction to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday. "A Dangerous Affair" is an adventurous and romantic story, for the action of its plot moves with the speed of an airship's propeller, presenting four hand-to-hand encounters between the hero and the villain and a Japanese confederate that carry untold realism.

The Main Line branch of the Red Cross opened a Service Men's Club last Tuesday night in the Community Center rooms of the old Lancaster Avenue School in Bryn Mawr.

The club is for the benefit of all former soldiers, sailors and marines residing in the district from Overbrook to Villanova.

A large room in the rear of the school has been fitted up with games, magazines, books, reading and writing facilities, a piano, pool table and other equipment. It will be open from 7.30 to 11 o'clock every night except Sundays. The facilities will be expanded.

ber, whereas the Boroughites failed to register.

Narberth brought the fans to their feet by staging a great ninth-inning rally and with two out and two on Davis was pulled and Owen Humphries, of the United States Naval Academy, sent to bat. However, Grevel was the master, making him the victim on strikes, thus finishing the game amid much cheering.

In the fourth, with two down, Cruthers hit safely to left field, stole second, and when Yeabsley smote a drive just out of the reach of Batten, Stites came in fast in an effort to make a quick play at the plate. The ball passed him and Cruthers scored.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

FINAL MATCH IN DOUBLES TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO BE PLAYED SATURDAY

BIG CROWD EXPECTED OUT TO SEE THE CONTEST BETWEEN SHAW AND WARWICK, AND KIRKPATRICK AND STAPLES—BOTH WINNERS IN FORMER TOURNAMENTS—WORKING TOWARD SINGLES FINALS, WHICH MAY BE PLAYED NEXT SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20.

Any Narberthite who wants to see a first class tennis match had better come to the courts of the Narberth Tennis Association, at Elmwood and Essex avenues, this Saturday afternoon, September 13, at 2 o'clock, and witness the doubles finals in the annual tournament. The match will be played between Messrs. Shaw and Warwick and Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Staples. These two teams together have eliminated the fifteen other teams that started in the tournament, and as each has had a good deal of tournament experience, a No. 1 tennis may be expected from start to finish. Moreover, both teams are winners of former tournaments.

Last Saturday, Shaw and Warwick won their way to the semi-finals against Newell and Philler in one of the most exciting matches seen on the courts in a long time. In the fourth set, when Shaw and Warwick led by a set score of 2-1, and were within a few points of the what might have been their third set and the match, Newell and Philler redoubled their efforts and by the hardest kind of uphill playing won by a score of 9-7. This tied the set score 2-2, and every point in the fifth set was contested by the sharpest kind of playing right up to the end.

Not so much progress has been made in the singles matches, but it is hoped that during the two coming weeks the playing will have progressed far enough to schedule the final match for Saturday afternoon, September 20. Practically all the best players are still in the running, and no one can safely predict who will win their way to the semi-finals and finals.

The consolation matches are also getting under way and ought to reach the finals in a couple of weeks. The summary of the matches played follows:—

Men's Singles.

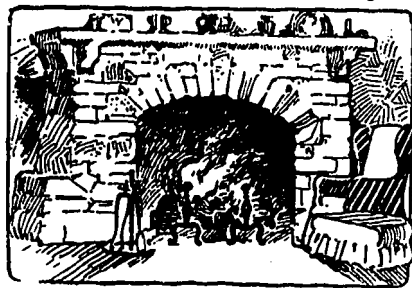

First Round — Whitney defeated Fenno, 6-4, 7-5; Newell defeated Hartley, 6-1, 6-1; W. R. D. Hall defeated Donnelly, 6-4, 6-0; Philler defeated Thomas, 8-6, 6-3; Simpson defeated Bailey, 6-4, 6-1; Kirkpatrick defeated Scanlon, 6-1, 6-1; Warner defeated Grace, 6-3, 6-1; Shaw defeated Redifer, Jr., 6-1, 6-0; Pattison defeated Kruse, 6-3, 2-6, 6-0; Warwick defeated Tompkins, 6-0, 6-1; Town defeated Burkhardt, 6-3, 6-0; Williams defeated Redifer, Sr., 6-0, 6-0; Cowin defeated Du Bree, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1; Staples defeated Muschamp, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4; McKell defeated W. Harris, 6-3, 3-6, 6-0; Van Auker, 6-0, 6-2.

Second Round — Newell defeated Whitney, 7-5, 6-0; Philler defeated W. R. D. Hall, 7-5, 6-3; Kirkpatrick defeated Simpson, 6-3, 6-4; Warwick defeated Pattison, 6-4, 6-2; Town defeated Williams, 6-4, 6-1; Cowin defeated Staples, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2; Van Auker defeated McKell, 6-4, 4-6, 6-0.

Third Round — Warwick defeated Town, 6-4, 6-3.

THE FIRESIDE

Vacation days are over.

Earl Dickie is home from France.

Audrey Cooke is visiting Miss Ethel Semel, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Simpson are at Silver Bay, Lake George.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stephenson are sojourning in Avalon, N. J.

Miss Maizie Simpson and Miss Sadie Simpson have returned from Ocean City.

Mrs. John Du Bree and daughter Mandy are at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Joyce are spending a few weeks at Chelsea.

Miss Frieda Schubel has severed her relations with the schools to pursue her music work in New York.

Are you interested in crap? If so, you should have been in the Arcade last Sunday afternoon about 5.15.

Ardmore branch of the Y. M. C. A. plans to open a "lodging exchange" to assist visitors to the Main Line town.

Mr. Walton M. Wentz and family have returned home from a visit to Spring Grove, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Peebles are spending their vacation at Thousand Islands.

Miss Edith Stadelman, of St. Augustine, Florida, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dickie.

Mrs. T. Noel Butler, accompanied by her children, is spending the month of August at Ocean City.

Second Lieutenant Earl Dickie has returned from France, after sixteen months' service overseas.

Mrs. G. Howard Reese and daughter Elma, of 206 Woodbine avenue, are spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

The boys at the new Bryn Mawr school did considerable police work in cleaning up the grounds on the opening day.

The streets of our Borough are being put in excellent condition. We have a good Street Commissioner, and why not tell him so.

Judge and Mrs. N. M. Taylor, of Indianapolis, Ind., are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Taylor.

A demonstration supper will be held in the Y. M. C. A. during the latter part of September, under the direction of the Women's Auxiliary.

Bryn Mawr's business men abandoned the local town Wednesday and went on their first annual outing, which was held at the Plymouth Country Club, near Norristown.

Major A. H. Allen, of Washington, D. C., recently returned from overseas, was a visitor to our town last week. Major Allen is a brother of Mrs. Benjamin T. White, of Dudley avenue.

PRAISE FOR MAIN LINE.

About the Prettiest Section in the U. S.
Aviator Declares.

Seen from an airplane, the Main Line section is about the prettiest in the United States. This is the opinion of an expert.

Captain Joe Dawson, U. S. A., attached to the aviation supply depot near Harrisburg, paid an airplane visit to his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Burke Baker, County Line road, Bryn Mawr, making the trip in about an hour Saturday afternoon and landing on the Bryn Mawr Polo Club playing field.

"I have traveled over a good bit of country in these United States," Captain Dawson said yesterday, "but I have never seen anything so beautiful as this Main Line district. The places looked so nice that I wanted to land at all of them."

OVERSEAS HERO VICTIM OF RECKLESS AUTO DRIVER

The fourth automobile accident in two weeks at Bryn Mawr avenue and Old Lancaster Road, Bryn Mawr, sent Jacob Bosch, 798 Railroad avenue, Bryn Mawr, to the Bryn Mawr Hospital with a crushed ankle. Bosch, who recently returned from military service in France, was riding a motorcycle and was struck by a large touring car, whose driver, he said, hurried on. Several similar crashes have occurred at the same corner recently, as Old Lancaster Road is getting a lot of extra traffic since all travel has been diverted from the Lancaster turnpike through parallel roads during repairs.

MOTOR CAR ACCIDENTS.

Lower Merion Police and the Hospitals
Are Kept Busy.

Three serious automobile accidents, occurring within twenty-four hours, kept the Lower Merion police busy all Wednesday. One of the injured, Jacob Friedman, 15 years old, 5113 Columbia avenue, is in the Bryn Mawr Hospital in a serious condition from what may be a fracture of the skull. Another boy, Winford Bibelow, 16 years old, of Ardmore, is in the same hospital, but is recovering from numerous cuts and bruises. Leon Smith, of Haverford, was treated there Wednesday for a cut on the head.

Friedman was struck near the Narberth race track by the automobile of Dr. William S. Wray, of 4424 Wayne avenue, who also has an office at 2007 Chestnut street. He was permitted to go home on his promise to appear if wanted.

Bibelow was hurt when he rode from behind a wagon on his bicycle, on the Lancaster pike at Bryn Mawr, and was struck by a machine driven by H. Winer, of 114 North Carlisle street. Winer also was not arrested.

Smith was thrown from a light touring car in a side-on collision with a much heavier car at Bryn Mawr avenue and the old Lancaster road, Bryn Mawr, in which the small machine was tossed over the sidewalk and the heavier one went some distance up on the lawn of the Bryn Mawr Public School, but was only slightly damaged.

WOMAN A CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL DIRECTOR.

Mrs. Henry J. Gibbons on Republican
Ticket in Lower Merion.

Demotion of Miss Sarah Fite as principal of the Bala School brought school matters to a crisis in Lower Merion township, according to the women of that community, and they have endorsed Mrs. Henry J. Gibbons, of 339 Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, as candidate for school director on the Republican primary ballot.

"We feel," said Mrs. Gibbons, "that we need women on the school board. We have tried several times before to elect a woman, but failed. The demotion of Miss Fite brought matters to a head and many citizens feel that if injustice was done, it might have been averted had there been a woman on the board."

Mrs. Gibbons is corresponding secretary of the Woman's Club of Cynwyd, and has taken an active part in war work and in civic movements.

FORCED TO RAISE PRICE.

Counties Gas & Electric Company Make
Small Increase.

The Counties Gas & Electric Company announces to the public a raise in the price of gas of 10 cents per 1000 cubic feet. The new rates will go into effect on September 15, and will be $1.20 per 1000 cubic feet for the first 10,000 feet and a discount of 10 cents per 1000 feet is given from payment within the discount period.

The company maintained its old rates during the entire war period and when the country was suffering from shortage of coal, with costs still mounting, the company has been compelled to take a raise of 10 cents per 1000 cubic feet, and it is one of the very few public utilities companies that has alone borne the increased costs of manufacture during the war period.

John L. Mather, manager for this district, explained the necessity for this increase to help the company keep its equipment and plants in condition to maintain its usual satisfactory service. They waited patiently for signs of a decrease in the cost of material and oils, but as no drop came they were forced to take steps to increase their revenue.

Even with the increase we are enjoying lower rates than those charged by other suburban companies.

THE ENROLLMENT.

The total Republican enrollment of Montgomery County, as compiled by the County Clerk's office, is 28,735. The Democratic voters enrolled for the primary election total 9,497, while the Socialist ranks number 332. There are 78 prohibitionists and 81 members each in the Washington and Independent ranks.

The enrollment in the four legislative districts follows:

	Rep.	Dem.	Soc.	Pr.	W.	Ind.
1st D. . .	9983	1969	30	12	16	49
2nd D. . .	8224	1872	18	6	27	4

A nifty Texas Leaguer by Bert Yeabsley, enabling Cruthers to cross the plate, spelled defeat for Narberth in the Main Line League game played on Dobson club diamond here on Saturday, the home club winning 1 to 0.

Fans numbering close to 6000 traveled to Dobson Park to witness the game, which was for the supremacy of the last half of the season. They were rewarded by one of the most sensational twirling duels staged in the semi-professional ranks.

Manager Calhoun placed his faith in "Wild Bill" Grevell for pitcher, while Bill Durbin was slated to oppose him.

Durbin worked just as earnestly as he did when doing his "bit" in Base Hospital 20 overseas. Grevell was forced to exert himself in more strenuous fashion than he possibly did with Connie Mack.

Durbin pitched steady ball and allowed the Dobs but four hits for a total of six bases, a like number being secured by Narberth on five hits off Grevell. Dame Fortune smiled on Grevell to the extent that his teammates brought the one big run over the rub-

Boy Scout News

By a Good Scout.

Well, our Narberth Troop certainly had a good time at Camp Delmont during the week commencing August 9 and ending August 16.

On April 25 we gave a minstrel show to raise the money to defray the expenses of the boys at camp for one week's instruction in Scout work at our training camp.

Our total receipts were $189, out of which expenses were as follows: Costumes, $41; orchestra, $28.55; rent of Elm Hall, $16; printing of tickets, $6.25; music, $1.50; make-up, $1; total, $94.30, leaving a clear profit of $94.70.

We had made arrangements to take 20 of the troop who signified their wishes to go at $5.50 per Scout, making a total of $110, which necessitated drawing on our treasury of $15.30. At the last minute another member of the troop signified his wishes to join us and took the chance of being turned down by paying his own way, and if there was no vacancy he would return at once. The registration was only paid for 20 Scouts from Narberth, and when we arrived we had some difficulty in landing 21, but, as one of the 20 was our little mascot, the Scout master offered to double up with the mascot, so we pulled that off O. K.

The question of transportation stared us in the face, as we wished to go in a body, and as our resources were small and our ambition was to meet all expenses from our treasury, some of our friends came to our assistance by offering to take us up to camp in their private cars, for which we thank them most heartily. They were Messrs. Carl Metzger, George M. Davis, Odean, T.

Editorial

After an absence of three weeks, "Our Town" again greets you.

During the dull month of August, with so many of our townspeople away, it was deemed advisable to publish the paper only where sufficient news and sufficient income warranted getting out the paper from week to week. However, plans are under way at the present moment to underwrite the paper for a period of one year, and the Editor sincerely trusts that all those on whom the committee will call will listen to the excellent plan outlined by the Chairman of the Finance Committee, and do all that can be done to assist us in keeping this little paper before our readers from week to week.

The quality of baseball played by our local team at the Dobson grounds last Saturday was of the best, and there is only honor due every member of the team for the wonderful showing made against the strong Dobson aggregation.

When one considers the fact that our team is made up principally of Narberth boys, and also considering that they have played against a great many professionals in the games during the past season, the second half of the present series proved that Narberth undoubtedly had one of the strongest amateur teams in this section.

The game to be played today, with Strawberry & Clothier, at Sixty-third and Walnut streets, will be watched with interest, and we can only trust that ample support will be given our boys in shaping up their plans for next season.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The Borough seems to be a little slack in performing some of its duties. Collection of ashes this month was omitted, the reason given being pressing work on the roads. But ash collection is more important to many householders than road work, especially when it is due only once a month. Despite the increased use of gas stoves, there are still many coal ranges in use, and ashes accumulate in four weeks. Then, too, some of our people were away at last collecting time.

Speaking of road work, we notice that the cleaning of gutters is not attended to as in Squire McClellan's time. Some sections of our streets have gotten filled with weeds and coarse grass. One does not yet see the sign on street corners leading from the two pikes to Narberth, the need for which was so forcibly set forth last month by Mr. Freeman.

CAMOLEN.

To the Editor of Our Town:

My impression, after my first attendance at a meeting of Council, on Monday, September 8, as a representative of the Narberth Civic Association, is that the Borough is to be congratulated upon the thorough and business-like methods of our municipal authorities in dealing with the questions relating to the Borough and its citizens. The principal matters brought up at the meeting were as follows:

Mr. E. C. Griswold was appointed a member of the Board of Health, vice Mr. Charles V. Noel.

The Finance Committee presented bills aggregating $2,994.36, which were approved for payment.

Officer Hill again reported the parking of several cars at very late hours of the night without lights. Summary action may be taken if owners don't take heed.

Our guardian of the law is also very keen on wrongdoers, especially those who are guilty of that minor offense of "joy-riding" in another man's car without notification to the owner. Mr. Hill had a personal conference with three such parties during the month, but he did not divulge the outcome, outside of the fact that he arrested them.

$19.25 was contributed to the Police Pension Fund for services rendered by the Philadelphia police during the recent race meet at Belmont track.

As before intimated, some property owners will probably regret they did not co-operate with the Committee on Highways and Sewers in connection with the sidewalks and gutters, for which they are responsible.

The Committee on Finance is authority for the statement that as soon as Tax Collector Jones can remit some of the 1919 taxes just that soon can some of our loans be reduced.

Note the improved appearance of the shade trees after the recent pruning. Mr. John Auker is now a member of the Shade Tree Committee.

Some taxpayers at Price and Conway avenues seem to be under the impression that they should have more light in that section. Council was agreeable, so now there will be more light on the subject in that vicinity.

The Committee on Highways and Sewers will have the necessary surveys made and plans prepared, and also obtain estimates for additional sewers to take care of properties now being erected in the Borough.

The Street Commissioner reports that he has at last secured a horse that is a perfect match for the one good one we already have.

Additional rubber boots and coats were authorized to take care of our firemen during inclement weather; also a chain jack for the fire trucks.

C. H. A. CHAIN.

A copy of the following letter was sent to us for publication and we submit it accordingly:

Mr. Charles E. Creamer,
President of the Board of Health,
Borough of Narberth, Pa.

Dear sir:

Under the authority vested in me, as President of the Council of the Borough of Narberth, by the Act of June 12, 1913, P. L. 471, I have the honor to notify you that I have this day appointed you to serve for another term of five years as a member of the Board of Health, the appointment to date from May 1, 1919.

I have also reappointed Dr. C. T. Faries for the five year term to expire May 1, 1923, his appointment to date from May 1, 1918.

Section 1 of the Act of April 3, 1903, P. L. 138, amending Section 20 of the Act of June 18, 1895, P. L. 203, reads as follows:

"No justice of the peace, member of Council, or other officers, except school directors, constables, or election officers, shall, at the same time, be a member of the Board of Health of such municipality, or hold any office or appointment under the same."

I have therefore removed Charles V. Noel as a member of the Board of Health, effective this date, and have appointed in his stead E. C. Griswold to serve the unexpired portion of the term, the same effective as of this date. Mr. Griswold's term will expire May 1, 1920.

I would advise you that under the provisions of the Act cited above, the continuation in office of A. P. Redifer as Secretary of the Board of Health is illegal and I would suggest to you that he be replaced at once. I have called this to the attention of Mr. Redifer.

The reasons why Messrs. Noel and Redifer are not legally holding their places with the Board of Health are that the former is an officer of the Borough Council and the latter is a member thereof.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) W. R. D. HALL,
President of the Council, Borough of Narberth, Pa.

NARBERTH SCHOOLS.

Several changes in the faculty of the Narberth High School, which opened Tuesday, have been announced by William T. Melchior, principal. Miss Frieda Bausch, of the Department of Modern Languages, goes to Shippensburg Normal School after spending only a year in Narberth. Miss Adeline W. Lenzel has become Mrs. William J. Kelly and will be "at home" at Warrington, Pa., after September 1. She was head of the History Department three years, having previously taught in the grammar school.

The faculty as it now stands consists of Mr. Melchior, principal; Anna

"A Dangerous Affair," with Herbert Rawlinson and an all-star cast, including Florence Billings and Stuart Holmes, is an extraordinary film attraction to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday. "A Dangerous Affair" is an adventurous and romantic story, for the action of its plot moves with the speed of an airship's propeller, presenting four hand-to-hand encounters between the hero and the villain and a Japanese confederate that carry untold realism.

The Main Line branch of the Red Cross opened a Service Men's Club last Tuesday night in the Community Center rooms of the old Lancaster Avenue School in Bryn Mawr.

The club is for the benefit of all former soldiers, sailors and marines residing in the district from Overbrook to Villanova.

A large room in the rear of the school has been fitted up with games, magazines, books, reading and writing facilities, a piano, pool table and other equipment. It will be open from 7:30 to 11 o'clock every night except Sundays. The facilities will be expanded.

her, whereas the Boroughites failed to register.

Narberth brought the fans to their feet by staging a great ninth-inning rally and with two out and two on Davis was pulled and Owen Humphries, of the United States Naval Academy, sent to bat. However, Grevell was the master, making him the victim on strikes, thus finishing the game amid much cheering.

In the fourth, with two down, Cruthers hit safely to left field, stole second, and when Yeabsley smote a drive just out of the reach of Batten, Stites came in fast in an effort to make a quick play at the plate. The ball passed him and Cruthers scored.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community. The list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
